

OXYMORON

An OXYMORON is a figure speech that combines two normally contradictory terms ("oxy" = sharp, "moros" = dull)

Examples: a fine mess, almost always, found missing

COMBINE THE WORDS AND MAKE OXYMORONS

fine	dead	a fine mess
alone	big
almost	done
adult	luck
ignorant	mess
little	light
living	invisible
big	classic
found	together
new	children
bad	perfect
black	professor
Hell's	missing
almost	nice
appear	Angels
awfully	baby	